BRUNELLO DI MONTALCINO DOCG 2016

99 points | James Suckling | 11.20

The complexity and beauty to this is really something with cherry, walnut, tobacco and cigar-box character... It's full-bodied and deep with super intensity and power. Layered and beautiful.

95 points | Vinous Media | 11.20

Really stands out with its vivid display of crushed raspberries, lavender and clove. Further depths are found with each swirl, adding mentholated herbs and flowery undergrowth. It's dense and dark-fruited, enveloping the palate with notes of black cherry, plum, exotic savory spice and minerals... The symmetry here is spellbinding.

94 points | The Wine Advocate | 11.20

A fruit-forward expression with soft cherry, blackberry, tilled earth and a touch of sweet spice. This wine is made in an especially accessible style that prizes ripe fruit and oak aging (in both barrique and botte).

An Artisan's Philosophy

Winemaker Cecilia Leoneschi's intimate knowledge of the vineyard enables a winemaking approach rooted in the land, working to preserve and perfect each single vine in an effort to minimize interventions from vine to bottle. A lasting story emerges when Nature provides a harmonious balance to this winegrower's ethos, as exemplified in 2016.

CAMPO DEL DRAGO DOCG 2016

97 points | James Suckling | 11.20

Another structured, layered red with blackberry, plum, walnut and cigar-box aromas and flavors. It's full-bodied with depth and intensity. Tight and structured. A wine with a long future. Fine-grained and refined. Try after 2025.

96 points | Wine Spectator | 3.21

A balanced, expressive style, offering plum, cherry, fruitcake, iron and spice flavors, which are fused to muscular tannins, but also vibrant acidity, keeping this energetic and defined. Fine balance overall and terrific length on the finish. Best from 2025 through 2048.

95 points | The Wine Advocate | 11.20

You most certainly smell aromas of underbrush and forest floor in this wine along with dark fruit, cherry and plum.
